MED PROGRAMME

“Mediterranean organization structure and strengthening of innovation capacities for sustainable development”

Regional Development Centre Koper, on behalf of the EU project partners, invites you to the

MEDOSSIC TRANSNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON (ECO)INNOVATION

on 01 October 2010

in Portoroz, Slovenia (Hotel Histrion, St. Bernardin)

The project of ten partners from seven countries aims to establish a transnational network that will improve the performance of regional innovation policies and increase support to sustainable development through the promotion of (eco)innovation.

The presented contributions from partners, companies and participating countries representatives are intended to encourage discussion and exchange of views on opportunities environmental awareness and (eco)innovation can offer.
